

Ralph Ellison: The Invisible Man

Write an essay on the following topic, after having read The Invisible Man, by Ralph Ellison. When in your life have you felt "invisible"? Here are some other questions to consider:

- Why did you or do you feel invisible?
- Invisible to whom?
- What are some strategies you have used to deal with the situation? Are these strategies successful or not?
- Are there other people who feel invisible for similar reasons?
- Do you think feeling invisible is a common experience?
