

Editorial Prewriting Worksheet

Directions: Organize your ideas for your editorial by answering the questions below. Then write a persuasive one-page editorial that presents your position.

What is your position on Net Neutrality?

What three points will best persuade an audience that your position is the correct one, or that the opposing side's view is the wrong one? What reasons, facts, details or examples best support each point?

1)

2)

3)

How do you want the audience of your editorial to take action?