

Newspaper Article Planner

Directions: Use this sheet to develop your newspaper article.

1. Which newspaper are you writing for? (check one)

- Wake Forest University "Old Black and Gold"
- Winston-Salem Teachers College "Teachers College Informer"

2. What perspective will you be writing this article from? (Who are you? How do you feel about the Civil Rights Movement?)

---

---

3. Who is your audience? Do they support the Civil Rights Movement?

---

---

4. What background information on the Civil Rights Movement will you include? (Remember, the Winston-Salem sit-ins took place in 1961.)

---

---

---

5. Who will you "interview" and quote in your article? What do they have to say about the sit-ins? (Note: you may choose to "interview" more than one person.)

---

---

---

---

6. What details will you include about the sit-ins in Winston-Salem?

---

---

---

---

7. What is your take on the sit-ins? Are they working? Is it an appropriate strategy? What could the protesters do better or different, if anything?

---

---

Paste photo or drawing to support your article here