EXPLORING ANIMAL CAMOUFLAGE

My Animal Observation

Can you find the animal?

Now you see me ...

Now you don't

When you are at the zoo, pet store, park, or outside, you can invite your child to observe and draw an animal that uses camouflage. When the animal is clearly visible, encourage your child to draw it in the "Now you see me" box. When that same animal is in a spot where it blends in to the background, encourage your child to draw it in the "Now you don't" box. Remind your child to color in the background!
